

April 2020 Special COVID-19 Bulletin

This special issue of the LinkedUp bulletin features a new webinar series (see below) and a heartfelt THANK YOU for the incredible work you are doing to keep elders safe, healthy, and connected.

Please look for our next regular bulletin during the first week of May!

Sponsored by:
 UNIDINE

GREEN HOUSE RESPONDS TO COVID-19

Webinar Series

Join us for a power-packed webinar series, titled Elevate: Rise Above the Chaos, as we explore how the Green House practices and Core Values can profoundly address COVID-19 specific issues.

- This is a FREE 8-week series that draws from the lived experiences of speakers on the frontlines of COVID-19.
- The webinars are a compact 30 minutes each and take place weekly at 2:00 p.m. Eastern.
- Not sure you can attend each session? Sign up today and watch the recordings later.

April 30

Courage Amid Chaos: Leadership's Role in Calming the Storm

This webinar focuses on senior living communication and outreach in managing COVID-19 and the role that leaders play in calming a system. Carol Silver Elliott, executive director, and Eric Riguerra, director of nursing, both at Jewish Home Family, will explore their lived experiences in managing and leading during the pandemic.

>>REGISTER HERE<<

May 7

Lessons Learned on the Frontlines of COVID-19

Drs. Jonathan Evans and Jim Wright will share their experiences of being on the frontlines of COVID during outbreaks, where they managed everything from medications, moving residents, creating separate COVID units, advanced directives, and more.

Click HERE for a detailed outline of Dr. Wright's "Lessons Learned" from his own experience managing the coronavirus during a widespread breakout, which offers a sneak peak of this can't-miss event!

>>REGISTER HERE<<

May 14

Infection Control Strategies that Mitigate Risk in a COVID Era

This webinar explores and examines how to create and manage infection control systems and strategies amid the COVID-19 pandemic without eliminating the Green House culture of convivium.

>>REGISTER HERE<<

May 21

Dementia and COVID-19: How to Help People Living with Cognitive Changes

In this webinar, Dr. Al Power and other experts in dementia care will discuss how they have been able to ensure person-directed, relationship-rich care for people living with dementia in a time of social isolation.

>>REGISTER HERE<<

May 28

Engagement & Meaningful Life in a Time of Physical Distancing

In this webinar, Green House home staff members will share their solutions and creative approaches for ensuring that elders are safe, healthy, and connected amid the chaos of the pandemic restrictions.

>>REGISTER HERE<<

June 4

Caregiver Stress Amid COVID: The Skillset and Mindset of Resilience in the Workplace

COVID-19 has exposed the greatness and weakness of organizational systems in supporting staff. This webinar explores the power of resilience as an organizational value and offers tips for developing resilience among team members.

>>REGISTER HERE<<

June 11

Workforce Recruitment and Retention in a COVID Era

This webinar focuses on practical strategies for workplace recruitment, on-boarding, and retention applicable in a COVID era, as well as beyond. Hear practical insights from executives and HR professionals getting it done despite challenges.

>>REGISTER HERE<<

June 18

Putting it all Together: The Best of the Elevate Series

This webinar synthesizes the key concepts from the webinar series and identifies next steps for focused application. You, the audience, will help us shape this session by letting us know which speakers to bring back and which topics to dive in with more depth.

>>REGISTER HERE<<

Here's to the HEROES

To the care teams standing strong in the battle against COVID-19, we stand with you—in awe of your truly heroic efforts to keep Elders safe, healthy and connected!

"From caring comes courage." --Lao Tzu

The Green House Project
www.thegreenhouseproject.org

